OIL TANK REPAIRS ARE COMPLETED

DAMAGE DONE DURING HEAVY WEATHER AT KAHULUI HAS BEEN REPAIRED.

The connections for discharging fuel oil into the tanks at Kahului wharf were seriously injured some time ago have now been entirely replaced.

From the tanks a pipe line leads out into the harbor to a point where the oil laden vessels can moor and discharge their cargo. At this point the pipe is brought upright, so that the oil vessels can make connection with it from their own storage tanks and the oil be pumped through the pipe line to the tanks on the shore.

During heavy weather some time ago this upright part of the pipe was broken off by one of the vessels moored in the harbor. Herbert Young went over to Kahului about two weeks ago to make the repairs as they required the services of a diver. He was very successful in his efforts and completed the work in a shorter time than was expected. The pipe line and its connections are now in perfect order for use.

THREE SUGAR SHIPS TO DEPART

BARK SANTIAGO AND BARKENTINES IRMGARD AND ARCHER WILL LEAVE FOR THE COAST.

The recent good trip of the bark R. P. Rihet from Honolulu to San Francisco in twelve days has created a hopeful feeling among masters and shipping men generally. Tomorrow there will be quite a departure of sugar for San Francisco. The bark Santiago will leave with a full load of sugar, the barkentines Irmgard and Archer will also get away tomorrow for San Francisco with full loads of sugar. Close on to 3,500 tons of sugar will be sent out in the three cargoes. The Irmgard is expected to make the fastest trip of the trio but it is probable that the entire crew will make good passages to the mainland.

The bark Gerard C. Tobey will be the next vessel to get away with sugar for San Francisco. She will leave the latter part of next week.

The schooner Mol Wahine arrived this morning from Kona with 1,500 sacks of Paualu sugar. The sea was too rough to get a full load.

The bark W. B. Flint sailed this morning for Eleale and Makaweli to discharge cargo and then load at the latter place for San Francisco. Horuugr Gobe. Ad. If see RAN*FN

Terrell is now the twelfth undergoing his examination on his voir dire. Kirk B. Porter and S. A. Crook were excused for having formed opinions and C. W. Booth got away on account of his aversion to the death penalty. There are still eighteen names of the last special venire left in the box.

GRAZING LAND LEASES

Commissioner Pratt of the Public Lands Department, stated this morning that in the lease to A. M. Brown of the grazing lands at Kaohu, Hawaii, the clause had been inserted to allow the government to resume possession if the lands were found to be agricultural instead of grazing lands.

"The clause is one which was drawn up by the Attorney General for me several months ago," he said. "The last six leases we have granted have all contained it."

"The custom," said J. F. Brown, former Land Commissioner "of giving the government the right to take any of its leased land that may be found to be agricultural in character from any land leased for five years or more, is not a new one. It was first suggested about 1885 and has always been the custom ever since."
